It will not cure everything. It is not claimed to cure but one complaint, that is dyspepsia. We cannot say that it will cure every case of dyspepsia, but it will cure a large majority them. Such cases as are adapted to its use will derive immediate benefit. One small bottle will be sufficient to test it.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is especially adapted for emaciated or elderly people whose food does them but little or no good because it is not digested. The Cordial contains an artificially-digested food and is a digester of food happily combined. Read one of the little books which your druggist is now giving away and learn of this wonderful remedy.

A really palatable Castor Oil can now be had under the name of Laxol.

From an Almanac we clip the following interesting facts about the Bible:

"The Bible contains 3,566,480 letters, 773,746 words, 31,173 verses, 1,189 chapters and 66 books. The word 'and' occurs 46,277 times. The word 'Lord' occurs 1,855 times. The twenty-first verse of the seventh chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except the letter 'J.' The nineteenth chapter of II Kings and the thirty-seventh chapter of Isaiah are alike. The longest verse is the ninth verse of the eighth chapter of Esther. The shortest is the thirty-fifth verse of the eleventh chapter of St. John. There are no names or words of more than six syllables."

"Cast Your Burdens on The Lord."

I get so tired at set of sun
 To see nothing for all my labor
 No greater reward than a duty well done
 Not the recompense granted my neighbor.
 I've done what I could—I well know,
 Even God expects nothing more—
 But what I do, makes no show—
 I get so discouraged and heart-sore
 That Christ in Getsemane, felt thus
 Discouraged, heart sick, did he bow,
 And prayed to the God whom we trust.
 He felt in an Almighty's hands,
 To take or to leave as 'tis best,
 Can't we cast off our burdens hands?
 Don't He promise the weary a rest?
 Why don't we stop bearing it all?
 And believe in a Promise Divine?
 We love and believe, yet we crawl
 Weighed down with the cares that we find.

An Incident.

Dearest little fellow
 With those eyes so blue
 Bites the rose leaves yellow,
 Then begins to chew.
 Frightens mamma badly
 Runs, finger in his mouth,
 Bites with teeth, so sadly,
 Then, begins to pout.
 Some go down his wee throat
 While we're talking on
 Brings back thoughts remote
 To this sweet little son.
 Soon he laughs at terrors
 Which we in anguish show
 Regards these as our errors
 While trying to eat his rose.

A Newsy Letter From Primus.

Mr. Editor: I will endeavor to give the readers of the ENTERPRISE a little news from this section, though I have not much time to write at present.

The farmers are busy plowing corn. We have good stands of cotton. Early corn is looking fine, but the flea bugs are very bad on it. Had good rains the past week. Sweet potatoes are sprouting nicely.

Mr. Editor, by request I will give a brief statement of our Sabbath School at Stevens' mill. We have a flourishing Sabbath School with 55 scholars. We also have a prayer meeting in connection with our School every Sunday and have good order. We have preaching twice a month on the 4th by Bro. Pardue and on the 2nd by Bro. John Croxton. We will organize a baptist church there in the near future.

Mr. Editor, this letter is not on the subject of the Alliance but I will endeavor to give to the readers of the ENTERPRISE an Alliance letter in the next issue. I was glad to read a letter from Bro. J. M. Knight of Tabernacle Alliance. We hope to hear from other reporters soon.
